

Public Policy Internship

Rural Neighborhoods is seeking a public policy intern to help advance our work on affordable housing, rural issues, agricultural labor and immigration. Help track issues, build databases and move constituencies to action online.

Responsibilities

- Track proposed Federal and State legislation and regulations
- Write letters to the editor, news releases and blog content
- Generate public support for issue campaigns
- Work with partners
- Coordinate and attend meetings with public officials

Knowledge and Abilities

- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Excellent research skills
- Proficient in Microsoft Office programs (Word, Excel, etc.)